- Selected beneficiaries who receive an Erasmus+ grant will fully or partially reimburse the EU grant if they do not comply with the terms of the grant agreement and/or if they fail to complete and submit the final online report, unless they are prevented from completing their planned activities abroad due to a case of force majeure.

Art. 4 Activities

4.1 Teaching assignments can come in various forms and take place as seminars, lectures and tutorials. Actual teaching in this context should require the teacher to be physically present with the students. A minimum number of 8 compulsory hours of teaching per week is required. Although email tutoring or any other forms of distance learning as well as preparation are highly encouraged, they do not count in the minimum number of 8 hours per week.

4.3 At the end of the mobility, in order to enhance the best impact of the project results, beneficiaries will be asked to provide:
- a short impact report on the template provided by the UNIVE International Relations Office;
- the EU mobility survey;

Art. 5 Economic support

5.1 Beneficiaries will receive an individual support as a contribution to their costs during their mobility which is specified in the table below. Such individual support is intended to be a gross payment - "compenso lordo", and it will be subject to the application of the Italian fiscal law.

	INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT
Teaching staff (both mobilities for teaching and for training)	180 € per day until the 14th day and 126 € per day for the following days

5.2 Travels (1 round-trip flight ticket per beneficiary) will be covered by the Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility project, according to the fixed amount assigned per destination, as follows:

TRAVEL DISTANCE	AMOUNT
Between 500 and 1999 Km (Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro, Morocco: Meknès, Serbia, Tunisia, Ukraine)	Euro 275,00 per participant
Between 2000 and 2999 Km (Armenia, Azerbaijan: Ganja, Georgia, Jordan, Israel, Jordan, Morocco: Rabat, Russian Federation: Astrakhan, Moscow)	Euro 360,00 per participant
Between 3000 and 3999 Km (Azerbaijan: Baku, Iran, Russian Federation: Ekaterinburg)	Euro 530,00 per participant

8000 Km or more (China P. R., Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Republic of Korea, Vietnam, USA: Eugene)	Euro 1.500,00 per participant

5.3 Erasmus+ selected beneficiaries will be required to purchase their international medical insurance with their funds.

5.4 The mobility period must be carried out continuously and it must not be split into different periods. Therefore, during their mobility period beneficiaries must not carry out any teaching activity at Ca' Foscari. Teachers will be invited to provide evidence of the activity performed during their mobility (photos, video, seminars programs, etc).

5.5 Selected candidates accepting the scholarship will sign a grant agreement for mobility listing their duties and responsibilities. They will be required to comply with the local admission requirements.

5.6 Administrative support:
Support in visa application, housing, accommodation will be supplied by each host partner university. Ca' Foscari University will assist beneficiaries in obtaining such support from the receiving institution.

5.7 This call is issued notwithstanding the current regulations on missions at Ca' Foscari University (Regolamento di Ateneo per le Missioni, art. 5.9), in particular concerning the maximum daily amounts and the method of payment.

Art. 6 Admission procedure

6.1 Application

- Applicants should submit their application form and all required documents (6.2) via e-mail to the following address: icm@unive.it. Deadline: 08-04-2019 at 13:00 . Any application received after the deadline will not be accepted.
- A confirmation e-mail will be sent to the applicants after their application has been successfully submitted.
- The official language for the application is English. At the time of application any official documents may be submitted in original language but they must be accompanied by an English translation. At this stage non-certified translations are accepted. Selected applicants may be asked to provide certified translations of all relevant documents.

- The application form and all the attachments MUST BE MERGED IN ONE PDF file named after the Host University and the Host Country for which the application is submitted and the candidate's name and surname, following this scheme: acronym.country.name.surname.pdf (for example: GSU.usa.mario.rossi.pdf)

6.2 Required Documents

Teaching staff must provide the following documents:

- Application form, duly filled in and signed by the applicant;
- Mobility Programme signed by the applicant and by the Head of the applicant's Department;
- Copy of a valid passport;
- Copy of official language certifications or, if not available, self-declaration within the Mobility Programme (section "Language skills");
- Curriculum Vitae (max 2 pages) in English including extra-curricular activities (courses, seminars, conferences, published research, etc.) and professional experience related to the fields of the mobility. Please use the European template on https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae/templates-instructions.iehtml;
- Letter of interest signed by the prospective academic supervisor at the host university stating the availability and willingness to supervise the applicant.

6.3. Total number of applications

Applicants can submit as many applications as the number of destinations available for this call, taking into consideration the requirements foreseen for each destination (language, etc). In such case one application per destination will be required and the personal priority ranking must be indicated in every application form.
For further details, please carefully check Annex I.

Art. 7 Selection process

7.1 Valid and eligible applications will be evaluated according to the criteria as specified in Annex 1 for every destination, which have been jointly agreed by the partner universities and the coordinating university.

7.2 The final selection decision will consider also cross-cutting evaluation criteria such as gender balance, equal opportunities and participation of disadvantaged groups providing a more equal and fair selection process.

7.3 At the end of the selection procedure Ca' Foscari University of Venice will draft a ranking list of qualified candidates. A reserve list will also be defined and will include the names of eligible candidates who may be awarded a grant in case of withdrawals/drop-out of selected candidates.

7.4 All applicants will be notified by e-mail to their institutional e-mail addresses of the selection results as soon as the evaluation procedure has been concluded.

7.5 Selected candidates will receive a scholarship offer and are required to accept or reject it in written (no later than 3 days from the notification e-mail). For every selected candidate who will renounce or not accept within the deadline, Ca' Foscari University of Venice will nominate a candidate from the reserve list.

7.6 Appeal Procedure
- Rejected applicants who feel that a mistake has been made in the process or that their application has not been fairly evaluated can file a complaint to icm@unive.it not later than 2 days after the notification e-mail, explaining their reasons.
- Complaints from applicants who have failed to satisfy all the eligibility criteria (e.g. who have not produced the required documentation, or have applied for a scholarship but do not meet the requirements, etc.), or have failed to satisfy them within the established timeframes, will not be taken into consideration.
- The appeal procedure can only come into play if a candidate feels that the Selection Committees have not handled his/her own application in line with the principles and procedures described in the call. In other words, the appeal cannot concern the decision itself, but only an alleged error made in the process.

Art. 8 Data protection

Information relating to individuals (personal data) is collected and used in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) n. 2016/679 of the European Commission, with regard to the processing of personal data by European institutions and organizations and the unrestricted circulation of such data.
