

Request for financial aid benefits for the Right to Education A guide to the online procedure for A.Y. 2022/2023

The Financial Aid benefits for the Right to Education are:

- Regional scholarship for Financial Aid
- Students Paid Collaborations (150 hours)
- Reductions of tuition fees

How to apply for Financial Aid benefits:

- Request an ISEE 2022 certificate valid for "financial aid for the right to university education" by filling in the form in the "online services" section of the INPS website or with the help of a CAF centre or professional tax consultant— or an ISEE Equivalent (for International students or Italian students residing abroad) through the CAF offices licensed with Ca' Foscari:
- Fill in and submit the Benefit request form which is available in the reserved area of the University website;
- Enroll in a.y. 2022/2023 and pay the first instalment of a.y. 2022/2023 tuition fees by the due deadlines.

Please enter your reserved area, section "Financial Aid and tuition fees"> "Benefit request summary" to check:

- If you have correctly submitted your benefit request and what benefits you have requested (reduction of fees, scholarship, students collaborations),
- If your ISEE has been correctly received and what are your ISEE and ISPE;
- The status of your enrollment in a.y. 202272023 by the payment of the first instalment of tuition fees.

Please note that you are not required to send your ISEE valid for financial aid for the right to education, as it shall be automatically received from INPS website through our online procedure after you submit the scholarship request.

3.6 Select the button OK o continue with the procedure

3.7 You have completed your benefit application.

Select the button Visualizza i dati dell'autocertificazione to check your application data, you can also print a receipt (or save it in pdf format) by selecting the button Stampa ricevuta

3.8 The management information system will send to all the enrolled students the receipt of their completed application (which they have printed following the instructions at point 7) to their university email address matriculationnumber@stud.unive.it.

We highly recommend that students print and keep the receipt as a proof they have completed their benefit application.

4. APPLICATION SUMMARY AND VERIFICATION OF ISEE TRANSMISSION

In the box "Diritto allo studio e tasse" of your reserved area, section: "Riepilogo richiesta agevolazioni" you can check the if your benefit application has been transmitted correctly, if your ISEE has been imported and if you successfully enrolled in a.y. 2022/2023.

After three days from the submission of the benefit application, or after three days from your ISEE certification issuance (if it has been issued after the transmission of the benefit application) we recommend that students check if a green mark has appeared: the green mark means that your ISEE certification valid for the benefits for the right to education has been imported correctly from the INPS website. Otherwise, please check if your ISEE certification applies to the benefits for the right to education in your favour and that there are no omissions/non-conformities flagged by the Revenue Agency.

In the aforementioned cases please contact the CAF office to have a new and correct ISEE issued. If your ISEE certification is correct but has not been imported yet you can contact the Financial Aid, Equity and Inclusivity Office (dirittoallostudio@unive.it) to report that your ISEE has not been imported.

If you are enrolled in a course from second year onwards please remember that you must enroll in a.y. 2022/2023 by paying the first instalment by 3 October or by 12 December with late payment penalty charge.

If you do not see the first instalment invoice in your reserved area please contact the Financial Aid, Equity and Inclusivity Office (dirittoallostudio@unive.it): they will check your situation and proceed to issue the invoice.
