DEPARTMENT OF ASIAN AND NORTH AFRICAN STUDIES

CALL FOR APPLICATION SUMMER SCHOOL "SOCIAL MOVEMENTS IN CONTEMPORARY SOUTHEAST ASIA" (September 18 to 24, 2022)

Deadline: April 30, 2022

Art. 1 - Calling

1. The Department of Asian and North African Studies at Ca' Foscari University of Venice with the support of the Marco Polo Center for Global Europe-Asia Connections (MAP Center), in the framework of the MIUR financed project "Dipartimenti di Eccellenza" (CUP H76C18000680001), announces a Call for application open to 20 selected MA and PhD students for a week-long International Summer School on the theme "Social Movements in Southeast Asia" scheduled on September 18 to 24, 2022 in Venice, Italy. The event will be held in English.
2. The purpose of the Summer School is to support the professional development of 20 selected MA and PhD students who wish to develop a research paper exploring contemporary Southeast Asian social movements through the lenses of age/generation, gender, and religion.
3. Among the 20 selected students, the MAP Center will support maximum 5 MA students and PhD students from Southeast Asian candidates (all ASEAN countries except Singapore and Brunei) with a travel grant that will cover round trip airfare and visa costs up to a maximum of 1,000 Euros each.
4. The attendance to the Summer School is free of charge. Accommodation (six days) and half board (lunch) in Venice will additionally be fully covered for the 20 successful applicants.
5. In addition to focused lectures and class discussions on social movements in Southeast Asia, the School will provide the students with opportunities to develop academic writing and presentation skills through collaborative work with senior researchers and leading experts in the field. At the end of the School, the students will present their paper to an audience of scholars of Southeast Asia.

Art. 2 – Requirements for participation to the Summer School

Current MA and PhD students from around the world are eligible to apply. MA and PhD students who are researching about social movements in the region are especially encouraged to apply.

Art. 3 – Requirements for travel grants application

MA and PhD students with permanent residence in Southeast Asian countries (all ASEAN countries except Singapore and Brunei) are eligible for travel grants that will cover round trip airfare and visa costs. The students must be permanent resident in one of the following countries: Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam.

Art. 4 – Presentation of applications

1. The application form must be sent via email to the following address: summerschool.sea@unive.it, no later than 30th April, 2022.
2. The email must contain the following header "Summer School "Social Movements in Southeast Asia"" and must include as attachments:

Dorsoduro 3462 - Venezia
Settore didattico: e-mail: internazionale.dsaam@unive.it

- the Application Form (Attachment n.1 to the Call) duly compiled and signed by the applicant (in PDF format);
 - Curriculum vitae, complete with lists of symposia attended and publications (if any);
 - Abstract of a conference paper (max. 300 words) that the applicant would like to develop during the School. This paper should explore the Summer School theme through 1 of the proposed 3 analytical lenses: age, gender, or religion;
 - Short bio note (100–150 words)
 - Copy of Passport ID.
3. The application must be completed using only the form attached to this call for applications, under penalty of exclusion.

Art. 4 – Selection Commission

The identification of the selected students and of recipients of the travel grants in question will be carried out by a Commission, specifically appointed by the Head of Department.

Art. 5 – Formation of the ranking list

The Commission referred to in the previous article will draw up a ranking list of merit, giving each candidate a mark up to 50 points. They will be assigned up to a maximum of 25/50 points for the abstract and up to a maximum of 25/50 points for the curriculum.

Art. 6 – Publication of the selection results

The ranking list of the students admitted to the Summer School and to the travel grants will be announced through publication on the Department's website at: <http://www.unive.it/sea>, Successful applications will be notified via email by 15th May 2022.

Art. 7 – Obligations of the selected students

1. Selected students are barred from requesting other scholarships or grants that cover the expenses already covered by the Summer School (attendance fee, accommodation, meals)
2. The 5 travel grants recipients are additionally barred from requesting other scholarships or grants that cover travel related expenses.
3. All selected students will be required to submit a full-length conference paper (maximum: 6,000 words, including references, notes and bibliography) based on their original abstract by 15th July 2022. The proposed paper should not have been previously published or presented. It should also be based on the student's own work.
4. The selected students are obliged to accept all the provisions of this call for applications.

Art. 8 – Provision of the travel grant

1. The travel grants will be awarded to the winning students by the Department of Asian and North African Studies.
2. The recipients will receive further details on how the travel grants will be provided after the selection.
3. In case the travel grant is paid as a reimbursement of incurred costs, the recipient must have a bank account where the Department will issue the payment.

Art. 9 – Revocation and withdrawal

1. The recipients who intends to withdraw from the travel grant award must inform the Department via email to summerschool.sea@unive.it by 30th May 2022.
2. Failure to comply to Art. 7 provisions will constitute a reason for revocation of the travel grant and exclusion from the Summer School participation.

Art. 10 – Director of the Procedure

The person responsible for the procedure, pursuant to and for the purposes of Law no. 241/1990 is Dr. Patrizia Rossetti, Department Secretary.
