INFORMS

Article 1

Subject of the Call

This public call is intended for the allocation of teaching activities for the academic year 2021/2022 as specified in the table below.

Deadline for applications: mandatory time-limit at 12:00 (CET) of 31.01.2022.

The teaching activities of this call are intended for the Foundation year, a University preparation programme for international students who have completed less than 12 full years of schooling at the end of high school.

The teaching activities aim at enabling students to meet the schooling requirements, and at giving them the chance to strengthen their academic background before beginning an undergraduate degree at a University in Italy. The syllabus proposed by the candidate must reflect these specifications. More information on the Foundation year can be found in the web page <https://www.unive.it/pag/34804/>

ID	Title	semester	hours	remuneration
FOY33	Contemporary European and Italian History (due partizioni)	II°	42 + 42	€ 2.835,00 + 2.835,00

Each teaching activity will be taught in English; applicants must indicate in the CV attached to the application their level of knowledge of the language, and any English language certifications held.

N.B. due to the ongoing pandemic, for the 2nd term the teaching activities will continue to take place in dual teaching mode. Successful candidates will therefore be required to teach at one of the University buildings, in the classrooms and hours established by the School.

Each teaching activity will start subject to the presence of attending students. The professionals awarded the teaching assignment should verify the attendance of students by the end of the first week after the beginning of the course.

In case the minimum number of students required is not met, the teaching activity will not be activated, and the activities performed by the awarded party will be paid proportionally, in any case, this payment will not exceed 20% of the salary stated in this call.

The teaching activities calendar will be:

II term: March 1 –June 17, 2022

(this program might be subject to slight changes):

Please note that pursuant to Article 7, para. 2 of the Regulations, the University is entitled to ratify a contract and award the assignment to employees of the Public Administrations, subject to issue of an authorisation by the Administration pursuant to the applicable law.

as for non-EU applicants

9. Copy of the residence permit

Applicants shall provide their contact details (address for communications, phone number, mobile number, and e-mail) in the application form.

The University Administration shall not be considered liable for any loss or dissemination of information caused by the incorrect communication of the applicants' address or, by late communication of changes in the address specified in the form, or for any inconvenience related to the post office, or third parties, unforeseeable cases, or force majeure.

The information provided in the form will be used to formalise the job assignment for short-listed candidates. For this reason, any changes shall be notified via mail to the School (cfsie@unive.it) or, as for educational offices for University employees, by communication to the Teaching Staff Office (Ufficio Personale Docente e CEL) (pdoc.incarichi@unive.it).

Article 4
Assessment and Assignment

A specific Commission appointed under Article 3, para. 7 of the Regulations will carry out the assessment procedure; the Committee aims to verify the scientific and professional competencies of the applicants. The Committee will short-list the applicants according to their scientific and professional competencies as declared in the CV and further presented in an online interview, aimed at discussing the CV and assessing the English language knowledge of the candidates.

Only candidates obtaining 50 point out of 100 will be invited for the interview. Should the committee decide not to interview the candidates, the total of points is maximum 50.

The final shortlist will provide adequate reasons for the decision in the assessment document.

Following the definition of the assessment criteria, the Committee will evaluate:

- previous research activities;
- work experience in the field of education and, specifically, related to the above educational tasks performed within the University;
- publications and other academic and scientific degrees;
- all information contained in the resume
- draft syllabus
- knowledge of the English language.

The Committee will:

- define the assessment criteria and parameters;
- verify the requirements of applicants;
- assess and compare the short-listed applicants;
- draft the shortlist of candidates eligible for the interview;
- interview shortlisted candidates, if necessary;
- identify eligible candidates, assess the best candidate among the applicants, and list the final results with the score in decreasing order;
- propose the jobs to the applicants. This proposal will be submitted to the Board of the School for approval, at the first meeting of the Board.

In the case of certified equal professional and scientific competencies, precedence is given to University Professors and Researchers of the reference disciplinary and scientific sector.

In case of similar qualifications, preference will be given to the applicants in possession of Ph.D., medical specialisation, or equivalent certifications obtained abroad, as well as the scientific qualification defined under Article 16 of Law No 240/2010, without prejudice to those employed by the University as full Professors.

In the case of equal qualifications and competencies, preference will be given to the younger applicant.

After the assessment procedure, the Committee will expressly state the name of the successful candidate and draft a ranking to be approved by the School Board which will resolve the allocation of the assignments; said list will be valid up to the end of the academic year specified in this call; the School may use it in case of future needs.

After the draft of the first ranking and short-listing, the list may be used again within the academic year of reference specified in this call. In case the candidate refuses the job, the candidate short-listed immediately after on the list will take their position. In this case, the candidate who has refused will remain on the list for future short-listing of the same list.

The list and the assignments will be published online on the University website <https://www.unive.it/bandidocenzacfsie> within 10 days from the approval of the list on behalf of the Board of the School. The above publication constitutes formal notification.

The University reserves its right not to ratify a contract/assign the job specified in the call if new assessments and changes occurred in the requirements required to apply for the assignment and/or related to the allocated financial budget for the academic year 2021/2022.

Further information on:

- the assessment procedure and the ratification of contracts are available at the Secretary Office of the School (contact person Anna Colombini phone 0412347360 fax 041 234 7565 e-mail: cfsie@unive.it);
- the formalisation of the teaching assignments allocated to University employees by Rector's Decree (see Article 5 of this call) are available by reaching the University Teaching Staff Office (Ufficio Personale Docente e CEL) (contact person Mr. Patrik Sambo - phone 041 234 7034 – 8203 - 8254

Contract Ratification

Based on Article 4 of the Regulations, University employees will receive a teaching assignment contract conferred by Rector's Decree; non-University subjects will receive a private-law contract of self-employment.

The assignment of a contract, for valuable consideration, to University Professors or Researchers of Ca' Foscari University may be carried out provided that the candidate complies with the obligatory teaching tasks set out in the provisions of the University General Regulations for the assignment, self-certification, and assessment of teaching and service tasks to students on behalf of lecturers and researchers pursuant to Article 6 of Law No 240/2010 issued by Regional Decree No 977 of 14/11/2011 and subsequent amendments and integrations; The payment of the salary is, therefore, subject to the completion of the verifications thereof.

In any case, the assignment of University full-time Researchers contracts will be subject to compensation based on the provisions defined under Article 4 of the Regulations only for working hours exceeding the total of 350 hours for full-time Researchers, 200 hours for associate Researchers (fixed time), in line with the provisions of the University General Regulations for the assignment, self-certification, and assessment of teaching and service tasks to students on behalf of lecturers and researchers pursuant to Article 6, para. 7 of Law 240/2010.

Given the type of assignment and related commitment requested to the candidate, the private-law contracts ratified to allocate the teaching assignment will be collaboration contracts, excluding the subjects having personal VAT No.

The contracts can be ratified with employees from other Public Administrations, as envisaged by Article 53 of Decree Law No 165/2001 and subsequent amendments and integrations and, in any case, by complying with the regulations on extra work assignments as set out by the Administration currently employing the candidate.

The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the laws ruling on the allocation of remunerated posts to public employees with a full-time contract.

Based on Article 9 of the Regulations, the maximum duration of the awarded contract is one academic year and can be renewed each year for a total of five years, if necessary, provided that the financial coverage is ensured, and a positive assessment of the job performance is submitted.

Upon the ratification of the contract, the Professor might be required to sign the original paper document or the electronic document by means of digital signature. Successful candidates shall verify that they possess an adequate device to create a digital signature in line with the standards set out by AGID-Agenzia per l'Italia Digitale (Agency for Digital Italy) (<https://www.agid.gov.it/it/piattaforme/firma-elettronica-qualificata/prestatori-di-servizi-fiduciari-attivi-in-italia>) and, if this is not the case, to equip them with said device and signature in time.

Over the whole duration of their contract, the Contract Holders undertake not to carry out activities that may result in a conflict of interests with their teaching assignment or be harmful to the University.

As for the termination of the contract, the provisions stated under Article 10 of the Regulations, the applicable law, and the contractual terms apply.

Non-EU citizens applicants:

Non-EU applicants residing in Italy:

the ratification of teaching contracts is subject to the possession of a residence card/residence permit for long-term EC residents or a residence permit enabling self-employment in Italy for the whole duration of the teaching contract. A copy of the said document shall be attached when applying for the call to perform all legal verifications and obligations.

Non-EU applicants not residing in Italy:

the ratification of teaching contracts is subject to the issue of a residence permit for the foreign citizen according to the procedure of entry in Italy for work reasons, which shall be formalised before the beginning of the lessons. Otherwise, to comply with the planned programme, the School might appoint another eligible candidate by following the ranking drafted by the Committee.

Article 6 Obligations of Contract Holders

Contract Holders shall ensure the performance of all the activities related to the job assignment as described below:

- teaching hours according to the School programme for academic year 2021/2022 (see table in art. 1)
- meetings with the students: at least 2 hours per week during the course period
- compilation of the teaching activity record
- preparation and delivery of the learning assessment activities.

The above activities shall be conducted according to the School guidelines and in coordination with the Foundation year Teaching Committee.

Successful applicants are, henceforth, required to consent to the planning and organisation of their teachings in terms of location, timetable, teaching hours, and management of the lesson register, as defined by the University.

The Contract Holder shall define the syllabus, in agreement with the Teaching Committee of the program and published by the Contract Holder in the relevant web section (Syllabus teachings - <https://www.unive.it/data/insegnamento/XXXXXXXXXX>), within 15 days from the ratification of the contract and, in any case, one week before the beginning of the lessons.

The Contract Holder shall also publish the learning resources – video-lessons, handouts, and links for further study, self-assessment tests, if any, etc....– on the University e-learning platform <https://moodle.unive.it/> and use the technological resources to carry out the lessons if required by the University.

The remuneration will be paid after the expiration of the contract and following the verification of the regular performance of all contractual obligations of the Contract Holder.

According to any indications and requests on behalf of the competent teaching structure, Contract Holders are required to modify the organisational aspects of the assignment contracted to them (see Article 1).

The Contract Holder shall comply with the contractual obligations for full Professor as defined under the University Regulations, where applicable, and the Ethical and Conduct Codes against sexual harassment of the Ca' Foscari University of Venice, and shall notify the University, at least 30 days in advance, in case of early termination of the contract for just cause.

The Contract Holder undertakes to post their curriculum vitae in European format and any information related to their teaching assignment (e.g., teaching schedule) on the University website according to the indications and procedures provided by the School.

The Contract Holder also undertakes to submit the contract, duly signed, to the School before the starting date envisaged in the contract. Any changes to this term shall be expressly agreed upon with the School.

The gross salary for the teaching assignment, as provided in the teaching assignments reported in the call, is defined by Resolution of the Board of Directors No 112 of 7 October 2011n and by the resolution of the School Board.

The Contract Holder undertakes to comply with the provisions related to health and safety in the workplace during the performance of their assignments (Ministerial Decree No 363/1998; Decree Law No 81/2008 and following amendments and integrations, State-Regions Agreement of 21/12/2011) according to the terms and modalities that will be provided by the Ca' Foscari University of Venice.

Article 7 Processing of personal information

The Ca' Foscari University of Venice (Dorsoduro n. 3246, 30123 Venice, PEC (certified mail) protocollo@pec.unive.it), Data controller, will process the personal information provided by the candidates, or otherwise acquired by the University, only for the selection procedure, in compliance with applicable EU and national regulations (EU Regulation 2016/679/EC and 196/2003). The provision of said data is required to assess the applicants' requirements and certifications. For further information please read the policy privacy available for download at <https://www.unive.it/informativacandidatiselezione>.

The additional teaching activities held by the Contract Holders may be video recorded and subsequently made available online for students according to the indications provided by the University.

Article 8
Reference

For matters not envisaged by this call, please refer to the provisions of the University Regulations and the general provisions set out by law, if applicable.

The use of both masculine and feminine genders to refer to the recipients of this call shall be intended as referred to both genders and was only used to simplify the text.
